ADVANCING KOSEN-RUFU – MAKING SENSEI'S VISION A REALITY

Dear Statistics Incharges!

Kudos to your unwavering support in making YSF 3.0 a grand success. Heartfelt congratulations! Your dedication and efforts to reach out to the youth and encourage their participation are truly appreciated. We would also like to congratulate all our statistics incharges for their remarkable efforts in ensuring that maximum districts mark the attendance for January 2025. Let's continue to advance with even stronger determination.

February holds a special significance for BSG. It was on February 4, 1961 – during his first visit to India, after burying the commemorative items of Toyo-Kofu at Bodh Gaya, Ikeda Sensei assumed full responsibility for the accomplishment of Indian kosen-rufu and passionately called out to the youth:

"Come forth, you Shin'ichi Yamamotos, in countless tens, hundreds of thousands!" ('India', NHR-3, p. 147).

This day is commemorated as the Indian kosen-rufu day.

Further, in February 1992, during his third visit to India, Sensei composed the poem 'Dawn of India', declaring:

"India, dear homeland.... Now is the moment of your grand awakening – you are about to arise" (VC, Feb 2021, Supplementary issue, p.13).

Since then, many new lives have joined the realm of faith, and it is due to the committed efforts of our statistics incharges that we have been able to keep a record of such lives.

As February is also the month dedicated to shakubuku, a concrete practice of compassion, let us wholeheartedly engage in meaningful dialogues to sow the seeds of enlightenment in the lives of others. As statistics incharges, let us commit to our area wise goals with determined daimoku and make sincere efforts to personally reach out to fellow statistics incharges and members, sharing with them the transformative power of shakubuku. As we grow, it's vital to keep accurate record of every new introduction, ensuring that no effort goes unrecorded, and no life is left behind.

By maintaining the records of new friends and their victories, connecting them to their districts, we will be able to reach our goal of a million happy lives by 2030. This also means nurturing new members, chanting, studying, teaching Gongyo, and empowering them as Ikeda Sensei's disciples and help them experience the Gohonzon's power. Through these dedicated efforts, we will certainly accumulate good fortune and create monumental victories.

Here's to a victorious shakubuku month! Let's pledge to Ikeda Sensei that this month of Indian kosen-rufu will be a triumph for BSG, staying rooted in Sensei's vision and making it a month of great progress.

ETERNAL GUIDELINE FOR THE STATISTICS DEPARTMENT

"A membership card is not a piece of paper; it is the life of one person. In it, the life pulsates, the personality is contained, and the drama of awakening in faith and rebirth is played out. There exist the human-to-human bonds of warm trust. Because we have been cherishing each person to the utmost, we see the magnificent development of the Soka Gakkai today."

- Daisaku Ikeda (December 15, 2002)

BSG STATISTICS DEPARTMENT MOTTO

"With the heart of oneness of mentor and disciple, we cherish each life as Bodhisattva of the Earth and strive diligently towards the dynamic and eternal advancement of Kosen-rufu."

CONFIDENTLY TALKING TO OTHERS ABOUT BUDDHISM

STAY UPBEAT WHETHER OTHERS DECIDE TO PRACTICE OR NOT

Introducing someone to the practice of the Daishonin's Buddhism can be extremely challenging. The Lotus Sutra states that the Mystic Law is "difficult to believe and difficult to understand" (LSOC7, 173). That's why nothing is more noble or commendable than efforts to share Buddhism with others.

In my youth, I also had a very hard time introducing others to Buddhism, but I persevered steadfastly together with my fellow members. We encouraged and assured each other that though no one might decide to practice today, millions were waiting for our message.

Always be positive and upbeat when you share the Daishonin's Buddhism, whether others decide to practice or not. The aim of our dialogue, after all, is to impart great hope and courage to others.

To ponder and worry about how you can help others become happy is in itself a truly noble thing, isn't it? Such concern for others is the concern of Bodhisattvas of the Earth and the concern of the Buddha.

Helping someone enshrine the Gohonzon is an event as wonderful as bringing the Daishonin to their home.

SHARING BUDDHISM BUILDS TRUST

Mr. Toda often said with regard to propagation: "There is no special technique for introducing others to Buddhism. The key is simply to chant earnestly to the Gohonzon."

Sharing Buddhism with others starts from your prayers for the other person's happiness. They will definitely feel the sincerity of your intent. It is your heart that touches and moves others' hearts.

When you sincerely speak the truth, you can build trust. Trust is youth's greatest treasure.

The more you share the Daishonin's Buddhism with others, the more the Buddha nature inherent in your own life and theirs will be strengthened, and the more the indestructible treasures of the heart will accumulate in the depths of both your life and theirs.

MAINTAINING STATISTICS – THE GATEWAY TO KOSEN-RUFU, VICTORY AND HAPPINESS

the experience

I have been practising Nichiren Daishonin's Buddhism for the past 16 years. Imbibing Ikeda Sensei's guidance, I do my best to encourage my members to their profound mission of kosen-rufu. I feel fortunate to be able to strive now as region statistics incharge.

I started my journey as a district statistics incharge in 2012. At that point, the block where I was attached had only 5 active members. My first determination as statistics incharge was to triple this active membership through cherishing each life and member care. Based on my activities as statistics incharge to reach out to members, my block achieved an active membership of 17 members by the end of 2012.

Since then, I have done my best in supporting all the BSG campaigns. Leading by example, I could balance Gakkai activities of taking care of members and doing shakubuku with personal and professional commitments to the best of my abilities.

The struggles I faced became the foundation of my human revolution. One significant moment came when last year, I facilitated a connection for a member's daughter in Mumbai to the practice. After discovering her details in the BDS, I promptly raised her transfer to Mumbai and got her connected immediately. It was a small yet impactful victory that reinforced the importance of vigilance and swift action as statistics incharge.

Another breakthrough came when in the process of accepting a YWD transfer in my region, I could speak to her inactive introducing parent who wished to resume the practice. With the support of statistics incharges in Jaipur and Pune, I facilitated her transfer from Jaipur to Pune where she is actively practicing.

Regular daimoku and home visits became pillar of my practice. I encouraged members through value creation study and made 30 home visits in three months. To do this, I applied Sensei's guidance and adopted a routine of 8-10 km daily walk to stay physically and mentally fit. I also inspired others to reach out to friends and new friends, invite them to the meetings and teach them gongyo and daimoku.

Ikeda Sensei says, "When we awaken to a sense of mission, we can break through the barriers that are holding us back" ('Atsuta', NHR-26, p. 63). Professional victories followed soon. Basing myself on faith, I followed up on a stagnant client lead which resulted in a significant business opportunity.

With the conviction to create victories and advance kosen-rufu I am determined to contribute to the Shopprix Region's target of 188 shakubuku in 2025. Through abundant daimoku, meticulous follow-up, and sincere dialogue, I will continue to strive with unwavering resolve. ●●●

Shraavanee R.
Zone Statistics Incharge, South India Area

Please share your journey of being a statistics incharge?

Also, if you would like to share any success story?

The journey has not been long frankly. I got appointed as a zone statistics incharge last year confronting my fear for numbers. While I was not actively taking care of statistics initially as I had a co-statistics incharge, but the realisation of the responsibility struck me when I read ABACUS and saw the 'Mathematicians of the Month' page. Though seeing the other zone names inspired me, at the same time made me reflect on my role as a statistics incharge. I diligently studied Sensei's guidance, read ABACUS, chanted daimoku, explored BDS and watched all the BDS modules videos. I then reached out to the statistics incharges and shared the importance and spirit behind marking attendance. And then in January this year with actions backed up by prayers, all districts in our zone (Chennai West) have promptly marked the discussion meeting attendance even before the month ended.

HELP

How has being a statistics incharge helped you personally?

Holding dialogues and doing shakubuku have always been a challenge for me. But being a statistics incharge, I am now filled with confidence and courage to reach out to new lives and my YWDs.

Please share your experience of working on new BSG Database System (BDS)?

The BDS module videos on Vimeo have been very helpful for me personally. Basis that, I have explored all the tabs. I find BDS very easy and user friendly. Whatever I learn about BDS, I promptly share it with statistics incharges and in case of YWDs, on home visits.

Do you read ABACUS regularly? What is the importance of ABACUS for you?

ABACUS has been a wakeup call for me and as a statistics incharge it is my go-to. To seek guidance, I can study VC and various other books by Sensei. But when it comes to statistics, it is ABACUS that has everything for statistics incharges. Experiences are so encouraging, and the puzzle is fun. ABACUS has no longer kept numbers for me as something to be scared of.

What is your determination as statistics incharge?

I am determined to ensure prompt attendance marking in my zone and help each statistics incharge experience the joy of attendance marking.

I am also determined to study ABACUS with my statistics incharges.

Further, I determine to hold 16 dialogues towards March 16 and also increase the VC subscriptions of my zone. ●●●
